

WJEC / EDUQAS

Appointee system

Challenges

- Allow applicants to apply online to become an appointee for WJEC
- Automate the process of collecting references
- Create a central database of appointees working for WJEC
- Invite appointees to specific roles
- Allow WJEC subject officers to manage the workload appointees
- Communicate to appointees about meetings and events they are expected to attend

The Solution

- A secure online system to manage the workload of appointees
- Built with .NET and SQL Server and hosted on Amazon Cloud
- Fully bilingual in Welsh and English

About the Customer

The examinations board WJEC contracts thousands of external examiners and moderators, known as appointees. Aspire Systems was tasked to create a new online system to manage the recruitment and workload of appointees and to provide a way of communicating effectively with them.
